What Is Astrology?

The basic philosophy behind Astrology is the idea that we live in a holistic universe, that there is a deep interrelationship between the whole and its parts, and that anything, be it an event, a group, or an individual that is born at a particular point in time and space in a sense embodies the whole universe focused at that point.

Obviously it is impossible to determine the state of the whole universe from a particular point in time and space, so in Astrology we take the Solar system as the greater whole and regard the patterns formed by the Sun, Moon and planets as seen from a particular time and place on earth as a reflection of the forces acting at that time and place.

In natal astrology, astrology applied to individual human beings, the Sun, Moon and planets symbolise basic human needs, desires or urges which we all possess. It is the ever changing interrelationship between these basic functions or archetypes, and their relationship to the horizon at the time of birth, that are used to symbolise the personality structure of a human being.

Your Life Destiny Report details the following:

Elements

Each of the twelve signs is assigned to one of the four Elements: Earth, Air, Fire and Water. Each planet together with the Ascendant and Midheaven according to its sign therefore has an elemental quality.

Modality

Each of the twelve signs is assigned to one of three Modalities: Cardinal, Mutable and Fixed. Each planet together with the Ascendant and Midheaven according to its sign therefore has a specific quality or mode of operation.

The Planets

The Sun, Moon and the planets: - Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, represent specific functions, drives, or urges within the total personality. Just as in the body the various organs; heart, kidneys, liver etc. perform their own specific functions yet operate as part of a total system; so the planets can be regarded as symbolising the 'organs' of your total personality.

The Outer Planets

The planets beyond Saturn: - Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, move through the signs so slowly that the sign positions of these planets refer more to the generation of which we are a part, rather than individual characteristics.

It is the house position that shows where we will meet with the principles expressed by these planets in our lives. The aspects of these planets to the personal planets show how we get on with the principles they represent.

These trans-Saturnian planets cannot be seen without the aid of a telescope. Therefore they represent powerful forces that are beyond conscious control. These planets connect us with forces and levels of reality beyond our experience as individual human beings. They do this by breaking down the boundaries of the ego (symbolised by Saturn), to allow the inflow of higher ideals and goals into our ego-centred minds. This can often mean the total disruption or destruction of the outer and inner structures of our lives in order to make this possible.

Aspects

A conjunction is where two planets are at the same place, and their energies are merged together. Trines (when two planets are 120 degrees apart), and sextiles (60 degrees), between two planets indicate an easy flow of energy between the functions involved, they therefore show aspects of your personality that work harmoniously together indicating inherent abilities or talents.

Squares (when two planets are 90 degrees apart) and oppositions (when two planets are 180 degrees apart) show that there is some stress or tension between the two functions involved. Squares and oppositions between planets therefore indicate inner conflicts and tensions (conscious or unconscious) that throughout your life you will be forced to recognise and express in a positive way.

If you are not conscious of these inner conflicts, they will be confronted through seemingly 'fated' external events or in relationships with others, particularly when the planets involved are activated by transits (detailed in your forecast).

A tolerance or "orb" of about 8 degrees is allowed either side of the exact aspect, but the wider the orb, the weaker the influence. To the right of each pair of 'aspect' symbols is a group of five stars ★☆☆☆☆, the more dark stars there are the more important the connection.

There are also two sets of minor aspects. They have a smaller orb of influence, and their effects are not so noticeable. These include the semi-sextiles (when two planets are 30 degrees apart) and the quinquax (when they are 150 degrees apart). These minor aspects indicate energy patterns that are not well integrated into the individual's character. They exist, and of course, must be accommodated somehow.

The other series includes the semi-square (when two planets are 45 degrees apart) the sesquiquadrate (when two planets are 135 degrees apart). These minor aspects are quite similar to the square, only not quite as potent. They represent energy patterns that must be acted upon by the individual and, when properly used and understood, can bring about benefits in self-understanding.

This is not to say that trines and sextiles are "good" and squares and oppositions are "bad".

A chart dominated by flowing aspects may indicate someone for whom everything comes too easily, they will therefore lack any real motivation and may not achieve much during their life.

A chart with many stressful aspects, on the other hand, may indicate someone who driven by his or her own inner conflicts, can achieve something of real worth in their lives. The stressful aspects are just as necessary to us as the flowing aspects, and most of us are a fairly even balance of both.

The activity of each planet is further modified by the sign in which it is placed, the effects of these modifications in your particular case will be described in the chart analysis.

When astrologers cast horoscopes, it is important that the precise time of birth be used because it helps to determine the correct orientation of the houses of the chart. The position of the planets within the twelve houses, indicate which of these twelve areas of life concerns are most important for you.

Should a house have no planets, this does not mean that the affairs of the house are not important. It merely means that those affairs are probably well integrated and are not therefore major issues for you. But when a house has a planet or several planets, it indicates that the issues of the house are more significant.

The Signs

During the course of a year the Sun, as seen from the earth, appears to move in a circle against the background of the stars, this circle is known as the ecliptic. The axis of the earth's rotation is inclined at an angle to the plane of the ecliptic, so, if the earth's equator is imagined to be extended into space, it cuts the plane of the ecliptic at two points known as the equinoxes.

One of these points, the vernal or spring equinox, is taken to be the beginning of the circle and is known, both in Astronomy and Astrology, as the first point of Aries. Astrologers then divide the ecliptic into twelve sections of 30 degrees each thus generating the twelve signs. The autumn equinox is directly opposite the first point of Aries and is the beginning of the sign of Libra. When the Sun is at these points, days and nights are of equal length.

During the summer months the Sun appears to rise higher and higher in the sky, reaching its highest point at midsummer or the summer solstice, the beginning of the sign of Cancer. This is the time of the longest day and shortest night. Similarly, it reaches its lowest point in the sky in midwinter or the winter solstice, the beginning of the sign of Capricorn. This is the time of the shortest day and longest night.

The signs of zodiac therefore, has nothing to do with actual star constellations, but is based on the relationship between Sun and Earth.

The Houses (ignore when time of birth not known)

You will see that the chart is divided into twelve sections. These represent the division of the space surrounding you at birth. The sign on the first house "cusp" (the line that marks the beginning of the house) is the sign that was rising over the horizon at the time and place of your birth this is your rising sign, (or Ascendant). The sign on the seventh house cusp is the sign that was setting at the time of your birth, the line between the first and 7th house cusps therefore represents the horizon.

Planets in the upper hemisphere were therefore above the horizon at the time of birth, and planets in the lower hemisphere were below the horizon; planets in the left hemisphere (left of the line joining the 0th and 4th house cusps) were rising in the east and planets in the right hemisphere were setting in the west.

Each house represents a specific area of life experience. The positions of the planets in these houses therefore show in what areas of experience the effects of these planets will be most noticeable. The Ascendant is an important point and has its own particular meaning.

The Birth Chart

The birth chart is a symbolic map of the solar system as seen from the earth at the time and place of birth. The chart is comprised of three basic factors.

- (1) The aspects (angles) formed between the Sun, Moon and planets, as seen from the earth. These are indicated by the lines on a birth chart.
- (2) Each planet is located in a particular sign of the zodiac. The symbols for each sign are placed around the edge of the chart, Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, Capricorn, Aquarius, and Pisces.
- (3) Each planet is also located in a particular house in the chart. These are indicated by the twelve sections of a birth chart.

Your birth chart is therefore a unique blueprint of your personality, every one is different. When you are born, the birth chart represents a set of potentials, it describes the 'form' of your personality and the contents must be added through the experiences of life.

Life Destiny Interpretation

Your birth chart shows the exact positions of the planets at your time of birth. It also tells you the sign of the Zodiac that was rising at your time of birth, known as your 'ascendant'. How the planetary positions of your birth chart relate to each other are interpreted on the following pages outlining your potential development. The interpretation begins with Elements and Modalities of your horoscope.

Element Emphasis

Earth Element strong - Halle's dependability

You are the essence of common sense and good planning. You prefer to deal with the present moment, the here and now and are more liable to react needing external stimulus to get you going. Stability is your strength you can be counted on if things get out of hand. Very industrious, you can produce things of substance, from children to company reports. You tend to be conventional, unworried by ethical matters, or even intolerant.

Fire Element strong - Halle's energy level

An original self-starter, you do not need any external stimuli to get you motivated. You do not like inactivity and will make every effort to change stagnant situations if they exist. Courageous, full of life and quite dramatic, you can be a successful leader and the first in line to explore uncharted territory. However, your tendency to act first and think later can lead others to selfishness. Learn to be more aware of other people's feelings.

Air Element weak - Halle's thoughtfulness

Your tendency to react to situations immediately and spontaneously makes you suspicious of others who rather think things through first. Also, your lack of forethought can cause you to miss important opportunities and sometimes lead go in over your head and wonder how it happened. You need to learn to carefully evaluate potential problems, before making any important choice or commitment.

Water Element weak - Halle's emotions

You tend to be out of touch with your emotional, feeling side. Any emotional reaction, such as crying or bad temper, you see as a flaw and is to be avoided when possible. While you may be cool, detached, practical, wilful and impartial, you find it very difficult to relate to others in a sympathetic and responsive way. In times of crisis or emotional stress, your lack of sentimentality can be your greatest asset.

Modality Emphasis

Cardinal Modality weak - Halle's capabilities

You will never be known as a forceful leader and you probably shun such positions. Do not feel badly about this, though, because you are the one who can be relied on either to keep things stable when times are rough or to keep up with the changing tide when needed. You prefer the tried and tested way and would just as soon leave the ground-breaking path to others.

ASThe Ascendant

The Ascendant is the sign that was rising over the horizon at the time of birth. More than any other chart factor, the sign of the Ascendant, to be accurate, is dependant on both time (it changes by 15 degrees every hour) and place of birth (someone born at the same time on the opposite side of the world will have the opposite sign on the Ascendant or 'rising'). As such, it is the sign that brings us into physical incarnation, and the planet that rules that sign is said to be the ruler of the chart, or our planetary ruler for this lifetime. Hence the sign and house position of the Ascendant's ruler are of particular importance. The ascending sign shows the way in which we approach life and the world in general. It can be related to what some psychologists call the persona, the mask we place between our inner selves and the world. As such it shows the way in which, we are perceived by others, at least their first impressions of us. The Ascendant represents the manner in which we must express ourselves in order to feel secure, and also the filter through which we perceive life and its challenges. It is the cusp of the first house, the house associated with our personal identity and self expression and represents the kind of energy and types of activities that we need to enliven us physically.

AS in Virgo Ascendant

With the Mutable Earth sign of Virgo rising at the time of your birth, you approach life with a need to pore over your experiences in order to digest and assimilate them. You have an excellent critical faculty that is sometimes expressed as fussiness and too much attention to detail. You have a sympathetic nature; spontaneous and helpful, you like to be of service to others when you can, but you can be somewhat over-critical when others do not live up to your perfectionist standards. Cleanliness and the care of the physical body are important to you, but if there are difficult aspects to the ascendant, you may go to the opposite extreme.

Virgo is ruled by the planet Mercury, as the ruler of your ascendant this planet will be of particular importance in your chart.

The Sun

In the solar system the Sun is the focal point around which all the other planets revolve, bound by its gravitational force. Similarly, in the birth chart the Sun represents the "centre" of our personality, or the core of our being, around which all the other psychological drives and needs, symbolised by the planets, revolve.

Just as, in the solar system, the Sun is the source of light and life generating energy, so the Sun represents the source of consciousness and life within us all. It is our will to be and our sense of individuality. The birth chart, however, represents the solar system as seen from the earth, not the Sun. Most of us are not centred in our Sun, but in our earthbound, or sense-bound ego. For most of us then, the Sun represents our 'Higher Self' or Spirit. It is the immortal spark of the universal spirit which is uniquely ourselves, as opposed to our transient and mortal ego centred personality. The Sun is therefore what we are striving to become.

The sign position of and aspects to the Sun, as seen from the earth, show how this radiant inner self works through the medium of our ego centred personality. It is the fundamental tone of our being, and as such is the most important placement in the chart.

Sun in Leo

The Sun in the fixed fire sign of Leo in your chart indicates that your basic nature is proud and generous, with a love of the theatrical and dramatic gestures. You have an innate loyalty and warmth and are generous and affectionate to those you love. You have a need to express yourself creatively, and to be recognised for yourself. The fixed nature of Leo gives you the strength and determination to achieve your aims, once you have decided what they are. Your will power is generally strong, and once you have set your mind on a course of action you can carry it out with great enthusiasm. You will need to beware of a tendency to become fixed and dogmatic in your opinions, and may be rather intolerant of other people's faults and shortcomings. This arises from your intolerance of your own faults and shortcomings. You may refuse to recognise them, or if you do, refuse to live with them. Expecting perfection of yourself leads you to expect perfection in others.

12th House

The 12th House is naturally associated with the sign of Pisces and its ruler Neptune.

After becoming part of a larger group structure in the 11th, in the 12th House we experience the dissolution of our separate individual ego. This House represents the area of experience where we feel that we are influenced by forces and powers that are beyond our control. In this House we surrender our individual wills to the service of a higher power or ideal, or direct our energies toward greater self realisation and spiritual goals.

On a more mundane level, this House is associated with large institutions such as hospitals and prisons, where many people end up if the self-surrender described above is overdone, or made to the wrong ideals. Hence this House is also known as the House of self-undoing.

Sun in 12th House

With the Sun in the 12th house you are aware that your conscious self is only part of your total being, and that below the surface lie a more spiritual dimension. You are very sensitive to the atmosphere and feelings that surround you, and this may manifest as some form of psychic ability. You would certainly benefit from some form of meditation that allows you to get in touch with the deeper levels of your mind.

Sun Conjunct Mercury

With the Sun and Mercury in Conjunction you may occasionally lack objectivity in your thinking, identifying too much with your opinions. Although you like to express your thoughts, your words may not always be backed by the facts, but more of an expression of how you would like things to be. Nevertheless, with more objectivity and tolerance of others' opinions, you would have a tremendous skill in communicating ideas and concepts to others in a clear and understandable way.

Sun Trine Saturn

The Sun in Trine to Saturn indicates that you are able to work towards your goals with persistence, determination and self-discipline. You have ambition, but you do not feel the need to step on others in order to succeed. Because of this, others will be prepared to help you on your way because they won't feel threatened. You are able to handle responsibility and turn difficult situations into creative opportunities.

Sun Square Neptune

With the Square between the Sun and Neptune you may occasionally experience some confusion concerning your sense of who you are, and where you are going in life. Past experiences and events may occasionally raise issues that force you to examine yourself honestly and understand how you drew these experiences to you, and what you must learn from them. However, at times, you will often evade reality by escaping into a world of dreams and fantasy.

There will also be times when you tend to underestimate your abilities, with the fear of failure preventing you from doing things that you would be fully capable of. In time, and probably after a great deal of self analysis, you will become more confident about your own creative potential and set higher goals for yourself.

Sun Semisextile Pluto

With the Sun in Semisextile to Pluto you have a deep-seated urge to investigate and understand life's mysteries. This may take you into experiences and studies that are considered esoteric but this aspect does not incline to obsession so you are not likely to be completely overwhelmed by such interests.

Being aware of the need for periodic change within yourself, there will be periods in your life when an old way of being seems to undergo upheaval. Despite the emotional pain and uncertainties that such changes may bring, you will generally be able to maintain a philosophical attitude, since you are deeply aware that whatever happens is necessary in the long run for your future development and growth.

Moon

In the birth chart, the Moon is second in importance only to the Sun. Unlike the other planets the Moon orbits the earth, and seen from the earth is the same size as the Sun (hence the possibility of total eclipses). The Moon gives off no light of its own, however, but reflects and polarises the light of the Sun.

The Moon represents memories, feelings and instinctive responses that lie just below the level of consciousness. As the Moon orbits the earth, it generates the movements of the tides and governs other natural cycles, such as the menstrual cycle in women. The Moon therefore symbolises the ebb and flow of feeling and emotion (symbolised by water in Astrology), and the feminine principle in nature and in the individual.

The sign position of and aspects to the Moon show how we react instinctively, and what we need to feel comfortable and secure. As children the Moon is the Mother, or at least how we experienced our mother. As we grow older this extends to our relationships with women in general (particularly for men), and our instinctive or conditioned responses to the world in general; based on the often unconscious memories of this early nurturing experience (or lack of it).

When the time of birth is not known the exact position of the Moon may be different to that shown in your Midday birth chart. You can experiment with alternative birth times to see if the Moon's sign changes on the day you were born and read the different interpretations for each Moon sign.

Moon in Taurus

With the Moon in the fixed earth sign of Taurus, you have an instinctive need for material security. This does not necessarily mean a materialistic attitude, it is just that you need to have your material affairs in order, before you can feel secure enough to pursue other interests. When you do, however, you can be persistent and determined. In your home life, you will feel comfortable if things are in their place, even if this is not actually the case. You will have a strong sense of values, possibly inherited from your mother, and are faithful and steady in your emotions. Once you make up your mind on an emotional issue, you rarely change it. Carried to extremes this can lead to possessiveness, and a stubborn refusal to change or go against your values, even if they are no longer relevant to your life.

8th House

The 8th House is naturally associated with the sign of Scorpio and its ruler Pluto.

If the 7th House represents relationships in general, the 8th represents relationships or partnerships in which something is exchanged or held in common. In sexual relationships there is an emotional exchange, in business partnerships there is an exchange and sharing of finances and resources. This House represents the area of life in which we relate to others on a deeper, more emotional level. It is in this House, therefore, that we often experience emotional pain, crises and death (symbolically that is). Hence this House has various but related meanings. It is the House of sex, beginnings and endings, joint resources and money held in common, and inheritances.

Moon in 8th House

With the Moon in the 8th House, you will have a need to share love on a deep emotional level. You will also probably feel happier in financial or business matters if your resources are held in common with someone else, but there may be changing fortunes in this area, or a business partner may be unstable and moody.

You have an instinctive awareness of the moods and feelings of others, and the atmosphere around you. In some cases this placing can indicate psychic ability. But you will also have to learn to distinguish between your own emotions and feelings as opposed to those you have absorbed from your surroundings.

Mercury

Mercury is the closest planet to the Sun. Along with Venus it is one of the inferior planets, that is, its orbit lies within the earth's orbit.

In mythology, Mercury is the messenger of the gods. In the birth chart, Mercury represents the urge to communicate with and exchange information with others. In the mind, it represents our rational thought processes, or the ability to analyse and reach logical conclusions. In the body, it is the nervous system, which co-ordinates and unifies all the different bodily functions into an organised whole. Mercury can be said to represent electricity in the form of information. Mercury therefore rules all forms of communication and exchange of information, and the ability to organise facts into a consistent view of the world.

The sign position of and aspects to Mercury in the chart show how one thinks and communicates, that is, the way in which our thoughts are expressed, and the way in which we receive such information from the world around us.

Mercury in Leo

With Mercury in the fixed fire sign of Leo, your mind is lively and creative. You like to express your thoughts in a dramatic way, and to be seen as a broad-minded and intelligent person. You have a strong will, and once your mind is made up on some issue you will defend your position as if your whole life depended on it. You are not given to self doubts and questioning, you are sure of what you think and believe. While this can be a positive trait, if taken to extremes you can exhibit an immovable fixedness in your opinions, as if your whole sense of identity depends on maintaining your present ideas and opinions, even in the face of conflicting evidence. You can show a lack of objectivity, and give the impression that you always know what is right and best.

Mercury in 12th House

Mercury, the planet of the rational mind, is in the 12th House of the unconscious. With Mercury here you may occasionally find that you are influenced by irrational or disturbing thoughts rising up from the depths of your mind, resulting in panic attacks, or the feeling that you are not always in control. However, whilst the unconscious is the dumping ground for experiences we would rather forget, and feelings we would rather not admit to, it can also be the source of creative imagination and inspiration.

With this placing you will need to find some way of exploring your unconscious, through meditation or psychotherapy. In this way you can bring to the surface the memories of unpleasant experiences so that they can be examined and dealt with. Clearing away accumulated psychic or emotional rubbish in this way will help you to gain control of your own thought processes, and enable you to make creative use of your psychic sensitivity and powerful imagination.

Mercury Conjunct Venus

Mercury and Venus, the planets of communication and relationship, were in Conjunction at your time of birth. You will therefore generally be fair and balanced in your thinking. When you express your opinions or have to make a decision about some issue, you will more often than not take care to examine all sides and reach an impartial decision. You do not really like to offend anyone, not even people you disagree with.

Possessing a natural charm, you would make a good public speaker, and should also get much pleasure from writing and the arts. You have a natural ability to turn your ideas into money, and as others generally respect your abilities, you usually have no trouble getting financial backing.

Mercury Conjunct Jupiter

It is said that the Conjunction between Mercury and Jupiter can produce an above average intelligence. You may find you have an insatiable desire to increase your knowledge, both about yourself and the world around you. This need will continue throughout your life, and you will never really feel that you have learned all you can, as each new piece of knowledge will open up new questions to which you will need to find the answers.

You do possess the ability to become an expert in whatever field you choose, the only problem being that because of your wide range of interests, you may occasionally find it difficult to confine yourself to a limited field of study or activity for long - in fact it would probably not be a good idea to try!

That is because your breadth of knowledge and learning would actually enable you to work in several fields with equal ability, concentrating on one or the other as you need to. Also, whilst you are generally more aware and knowledgeable than many of the people around you, you do not carry an air of intellectual arrogance - enabling people from all walks of life to relate to your viewpoints.

Mercury Trine Saturn

The Trine between Mercury and Saturn indicates that your mind is generally practical and organised. As a result, you are able to set yourself realistic goals, which you can then work towards with persistence and determination.

You also have the ability to apply your mind to disciplined study, often bringing your own creative interpretation to whatever subject you are interested in. You do not voice your opinions unless you are sure of your ground, but when you do, you are able to make constructive use of every piece of relevant information that you possess, and to communicate clearly and authoritatively.

Mercury Semisextile Uranus

Mercury and Uranus in a Semisextile aspect indicates an original, active and inventive mind. Being well read, your mind is alert, but you also need the freedom to think things through and reach your own conclusions. You do not like anyone telling you what to do, what to think or what to say.

Because you so often rely on your strong intuition, you are able to grasp difficult concepts easily, or see immediately the solutions to problems that would cause others many hours of head scratching. You have a need to understand yourself and to realise your full potential, and you are eager to stimulate others in the search for a deeper meaning to life.

Mercury Square Neptune

The Square between Mercury and Neptune indicates that your imagination can at times overshadow your logical thinking. Occasionally you may find it difficult to deal with the harsher realities of life, preferring to retreat to a world of fantasy and daydreams where problems do not exist.

This tendency is probably the result of early experiences where you found that this was the only way you could deal with life.

However, if you can control the negative side of this aspect, and be more realistic in your dealings with the real world, you would do well in occupations such as art or writing, or any activity where you could give your powerful imagination its full sway.

Venus

Venus, like Mercury, lies within the orbit of the earth. If Mercury can be likened to electricity in the form of information, then Venus can be likened to the magnetic field generated by the electric current. One of the meanings of Venus is therefore "personal magnetism".

In mythology Venus is the goddess of love. In the birth chart, Venus represents the social and love urge, and the need for harmony and exchange of feelings and affection with others. Venus is our need to form relationships and our power to attract such relationships. It is also our sense of values, based on what attracts or repels us.

The sign position of any aspect to Venus shows how we express these needs to others and the kind of response we need in order to feel in harmony. If Venus is adversely placed these responses may not always be what we consciously desire but are often necessary in order to force us to recognise some unexpressed part of ourselves.

Venus in Virgo

Venus, the planet of relationship and affection, is in the mutable earth sign of Virgo in your chart. You will have a tendency to over analyse your feelings in your relationships, rather than simply experience the person and your feelings for them, you will need to understand the 'why and wherefore', and the conscious and unconscious motivations behind the relationship. You could become very critical of the other person when your analysis reveals that they are not the perfect, pure being that you want them to be. Publicly, you will express a rather cool, perhaps even puritanical, approach to others, but when you feel safe, and in private, you can be as passionate as the next person. You express your affection easiest by taking care of someone's physical needs, making sure they are comfortable, well fed, and relaxed, and you will tend to seek these same qualities in a partner.

Venus in 12th House

With Venus in the 12th House of your chart there may be occasional confusion surrounding your love life as at times you may not fully understand your own needs in a relationship.

Venus Semisextile Mars

Venus and Mars in a Semisextile aspect indicate that you know what you want in your personal relationships, and whilst you are not overly aggressive, you are usually able to get your own way. Possessing confidence, you are not shy in any social circle. Also, although receptive to the opinions of others, you have strong opinions of your own which you are able to express with a conviction and energy that can swing others round to your way of thinking.

You have a need for new experiences to prevent boredom from setting in. You would therefore do well in any occupation that extends you mentally and physically, that gives you the independence to do things your way, and brings you into contact with new and interesting people and ideas.

Venus Conjunct Jupiter

The Conjunction between Venus and Jupiter indicates good-natured and easy going charm. Generally prepared to give others the benefit of the doubt, you will readily overlook other people's faults. You are generous with your feelings as well, ready to give emotional or financial support to others in difficulty. Whilst this isn't a bad thing, some people may be inclined to take advantage of your generous nature, leaving you with the feeling that you have been taken for granted. At times you will therefore need to learn some degree of discrimination in your relationships with others.

You find harsh conditions difficult to tolerate, preferring some degree of material comfort in your surroundings. Like everyone else, you seek happiness in your life and close relationships, but you are more likely to find it than most. Perhaps because you realise that happiness is not to be found by searching for some romantic ideal, but is something that arises spontaneously from within yourself.

Venus Trine Saturn

The Trine between Venus and Saturn indicates that occasionally your approach to relationships may be somewhat conservative. You do not like to reveal yourself openly to others until you've had plenty of time to get to know them and evaluate their character. Like wise, you will not make the first approach unless you are reasonably certain that you will not be rejected. That is because although you may put on a convincing front to the contrary, any form of rejection hurts deeply.

Mars

Mars is the first planet in the series out from the Sun that is outside the orbit of the earth. As the first superior planet, Mars represents energy directed outward from the self into the world. It is the energy to initiate action and the ability to meet challenges and overcome obstacles. In mythology, Mars is the god of war. In the birth chart, Mars is the self assertive and aggressive urge, the sex drive and the need to achieve our desires. Positively, Mars is expressed as courage, initiative, and the will-power to pursue our goals. Negatively expressed, Mars is impatience, violence and the use of force or threats.

The sign position of and aspects to Mars in the chart show how we assert ourselves and express our desires. Mars is traditionally a masculine planet, and therefore represents the expression of the male ego. In a woman's chart, the energy of Mars is often repressed by social and family conditioning, and indicates how she will experience the male ego through the men around her, whether positively or negatively expressed. It is, however, becoming increasingly possible for women to break away from traditional passive roles, and express their own Martian drives, but this is often not completely successful until after the age of about 30.

Mars in Leo

Mars, the planet of the ego drive is in the fixed fire sign of Leo in your chart, indicating that your self assertive and aggressive drives will be influenced by a need to express yourself and show yourself as someone to be reckoned with. You know what you want, and can be direct and forceful when it comes to going out and getting it, but you may be too heavily motivated purely by what YOU want, and you will not be easily turned from a particular course of action once you have decided on it. You may have to make a conscious effort to balance your own needs with the needs of others, and to temper your enthusiastic drive with a little looking before you leap.

11th House

The 11th House is naturally associated with the sign of Aquarius and its ruler Uranus.

Having established a career, public position or our social standing in the 10th, in the 11th House we look to the future and the part we can play as members of various groups or societies. The 11th House therefore represents our hopes and wishes, friends and groups. It is in this area of experience that we seek to act as part of a group that is expressing some greater social need or goal. This house in the chart can indicate how we act in group situations and the kinds of groups to which we are attracted.

Mars in 11th House

Mars in the 11th House directs your energies towards the area of the chart concerned with friends and group associations. You will need a wide circle of friends. You have a natural ability to rouse your friends into action and get them going. On the other hand, you may be the type of person who depends on their friends too much to give you the motivation and drive needed to achieve your goals. In the same roundabout way, you will often be first to jump to the assistance of a friend who is under attack, but at other times you may be the first to initiate an attack against someone you feel has done something wrong.

Mars Square Saturn

The Square between Mars and Saturn indicates that occasionally you may have some difficulty in asserting yourself and getting what you want. You can alternate between being aggressive and submissive. At times you may refuse to assert yourself, or to stand up for yourself even when it is necessary, but at other times, you can suddenly release anger, surprising others with the ferocity of your attack. Energies must therefore be channelled toward planned objectives. If you don't do this, then the unused, frustrated energies can become dammed up, and the resulting rise in inner pressure experienced as anger.

Mars Trine Neptune

The Trine between Mars and Neptune indicates that there is often an idealistic, even spiritual, motivation behind many of your actions. As a result, you generally have no difficulty in looking after your own needs and at the same time, the needs of others.

You wouldn't be an easy person to deceive as you generally know instinctively when someone is not telling the truth. Even if you have no direct evidence, you just "feel" it.

This is also a good aspect for dealing with other people's problems, or with the general public, as you have a magnetic quality that others find attractive. With your ability to see clearly how present circumstances are the result of past actions, you are able to help others with the insight you have gained from your own experiences.

Mars Semisquare Pluto

The Semisquare between Mars and Pluto gives a great deal of power and intensity to your feelings, and you can be incredibly determined when pursuing your own goals and in getting what you want.

However, you will also have little tolerance for those who you feel are not on your side and could at times even resort to threats or manipulation in order to get your own way. Needless to say, this could lead to conflicts and intense power struggles, both at home and in your career life.

All this probably stems from childhood experiences in which you may have had to fight for what you wanted, or battle against attempts to dominate or control you in some way. In a woman's chart, particularly, this aspect may correlate with unpleasant experiences of the male ego at an early age, an experience which may still influence you today.

Jupiter

The planets up to and including Mars have been concerned with the establishment of ourselves as individuals, and with the satisfaction of our own needs and desires. The planets beyond Mars connect us with a larger order.

As the largest planet in the solar system, Jupiter represents expansion and growth. It is the urge to grow beyond our individual limitations and the need to feel part of a larger order, whether this be a particular religion, philosophy or social system. Jupiter, the king of the gods, traditionally bestows faith, optimism and the ability to expand and prosper. It is the planet that promotes personal growth, gives us confidence in ourselves and trust in a higher power or greater plan. Negatively, Jupiter can manifest as overconfidence, irresponsibility and the tendency to over-extend ourselves or promise too much.

The sign position of and aspects to Jupiter in the chart show what kinds of experiences and types of activity create an inner faith and optimism, and the sense of being connected to the larger scheme of things.

Jupiter in Virgo

Jupiter in the Mutable earth sign of Virgo you can create opportunities for yourself through the use of your analytical abilities, or the ability to understand details as well as being able to see how they fit into the larger picture. You are wary of grandiose plans, preferring to make your way through the gradual acquisition of skill and knowledge, until you reach the point where you can confidently use what you have learned to improve your present situation. Philosophical or religious beliefs will have to stand the test of your critical intellect before you will accept them, which is fair enough, but you will tend to dismiss valid ideas simply because you do not understand them, or be excessively critical of people who's belief system conflicts with your own.

Jupiter in 12th House

With Jupiter in the 12th House, no matter how dire your circumstances may become, you have a deep-seated faith that life itself will provide for your needs, and indeed you will more than often be saved in the nick of time from impossibly difficult circumstances by what appears to others to be good luck, but in fact it is luck which you have created from your own thoughts and actions.

Jupiter Sesquiquadrate Saturn

With the Semisquare between Jupiter and Saturn, the optimistic energy of Jupiter is challenged by the restricting energy of Saturn. This is a stop/start sort of aspect. At times you may be full of confidence, with everything going well, but at other times you could be held back by self-doubt and obstacles. However, if you learn to strike a balance between optimism and self discipline then eventually you will be rewarded for your efforts.

Jupiter Conjunct Pluto

With Jupiter Conjunct Pluto you try to enjoy life to the full. You have enormous drive and ambition to achieve your goals, preferably as soon as possible, and are impatient with anything that delays you. To others your goals may be unrealistic but you will strive for them with amazing determination, and behind your ambition lies a powerful faith in your abilities.

Saturn

Saturn is the last planet in the solar system that can be seen with the naked eye from the earth. As such, together with the fact that it is bounded by a series of rings, Saturn represents the boundaries of the individual.

After the limitless expansion of Jupiter, Saturn in the birth chart represents boundaries and limitations. It is the principle of structure and form. In the body, it is the skeleton, which gives the body its structure, and the skin, which is the boundary to the outside world. In the mind, it is the structure of our ego and our sense of self which we seek to preserve from the impact of changes from within and from the outside world. Saturn gives us the ability to endure setbacks and work with discipline and patience toward well defined aims. It is the need for social approval through some kind of tangible achievement. Whereas Jupiter brings rewards and opportunities through what we might call good luck, Saturn brings rewards and opportunities through hard work, limitation and self discipline.

The sign position of and aspects to Saturn show how we seek to establish ourselves as individuals and find our place in the social system of which we are a part. Any form or structure, however, when placed in the light of the Sun tends to cast a shadow. The position of Saturn in the chart therefore, shows where we find our "shadow". It is here that we meet with our greatest sense of inadequacy, lack of faith and inhibitions. Saturn shows where we are most fearful, and hence most rigid; but if these fears can be met and overcome it is the source of our greatest strength and a solid foundation from which to meet the world.

Saturn in Aries

With Saturn in the cardinal fire sign of Aries, you will need to work hard at developing the qualities of spontaneity and courageous action. You will have a deep insecurity about leading or taking control, but this is precisely what you need to do in order to make use of the controlled energy of this placing. You do not like to be given orders, or told what to do, you prefer to do things your way, and get others to do them your way too. You have great organisational skills, a born director you need to find some outlet for these abilities if you are not to feel restricted and frustrated. If you do not develop this energy in the wider world, you could become demanding and dictatorial at home. You need to develop respect for other people's ambitions and goals, you tend to regard your own as more 'important' or immediately urgent, but continued co-operation from others requires that you support them also.

Saturn in 8th House

The 8th is the House of sharing with others, either on a business or professional level. But Saturn here also indicates some difficulty when dealing with emotional issues. At times you may find that you do not really trust others enough to open up emotionally, or to receive what they have to give to you. Possibly, there is a fear of losing your self-identity if you allow your emotions to flow freely. Perhaps the death of someone when you were very young caused this fear.

Saturn Quinquax Uranus

The Quinquax between Saturn and Uranus indicates an inner conflict between the need to be a free and the need for security and stability. It may be that early attempts to express yourself as an individual were somehow suppressed or your need for security and stability was constantly being shattered by circumstances beyond your control.

You will need to find some way to balance the two conflicting needs of stability and freedom, perhaps by understanding that the only real stability in this life comes from understanding ourselves, and the only true freedom comes from being ourselves.

Saturn Quinquax Neptune

Saturn, the hard-headed planet of realism, is in Quinquax aspect to Neptune, the planet of dreams. The effect of this aspect will not be immediately noticeable, but it will act as a vague background influence. Therefore at times you may feel unable to achieve a sense of real security, feeling that the results of all your efforts can at any moment be washed away by some unforeseen tide of events. At times there's also a conflict between your sense of reality and your dreams, and you may therefore swing between being a hard-headed pragmatist and a hopeless dreamer.

Uranus

Uranus is the first of the trans-Saturnian planets. It cannot be seen with the naked eye and was discovered in 1781 during the period of the American and French revolutions. Its discovery was made possible by the invention of the telescope, a development that has led to radical changes in our knowledge of the universe and our place in it.

In the birth chart then, Uranus represents the force for revolutionary change, the breaking from tradition, and inventiveness and experimentation. As one of the three planets that cannot be seen with the unaided eye, Uranus represents a force over which we have little or no conscious control. On an individual level, Uranus indicates our degree of independence and demand for personal freedom. If well placed it gives us originality and an ability to attune to truth that goes beyond the logic of Mercury. If we refuse to express the energy of Uranus within us, preferring to cling to the traditions and limitations of Saturn, then Uranus may manifest as disruptions and sudden changes in our immediate environment, sometimes disrupting our lives completely and forcing us to make needed changes. If the energy of Uranus is expressed negatively, it can lead to wilfulness, impatience and needless rebellion, the rebel without a cause.

The position of Uranus in the chart shows where we most feel the need for freedom and independence and the need to experiment with new ideas and ways of living. Conversely, it is the area where we can cause the most disruption and needless change.

Uranus in Virgo

You are not likely to stay in a job out of a sense of duty or tolerate work that has become routine and boring. Your work needs to allow you scope for originality, inventiveness and movement. You will want to do things your own way and will dislike being bound by other people's rules and regulations. This could therefore lead to many disruptions and changes in your career. Beware being over critical. Unusual ideas about food may also lead to strange eating habits. There is also a slight danger of stress related illnesses and being more accident prone than most.

1st House

The 1st House is naturally associated with Aries and its ruling planet Mars.

The ascendant is the cusp of the 1st House. This House represents the area of life concerned with our sense of self-identity. Signs and planets in this House reflect both who we are and how we meet life. It represents our personal identity, and the need to be a separate and distinct person. the physical body is the material expression of our self identity, and its strengths and weaknesses are indicated by this House. Another way of viewing the 1st House is as the lens through which we perceive life, and which colours our view of existence.

Uranus in 1st House

With Uranus in the 1st House of your chart you will not be satisfied in fulfilling the traditional role imposed on you by society and culture. You will need to make your own way in life, to be different from the norm in some way, if you are not you are likely to feel frustrated and bored. You have difficulty in adhering to conventional standards of conduct, and may even enjoy shocking others.

The have a kind of electric aura that others may find attractive or difficult to handle. You do not like to be taken for granted, you need to be respected for your own originality and uniqueness, to be seen as an individual with the freedom to make your own choices and be yourself, although it may take you some time to gain a clear understanding of who you are and what you really want from life.

Uranus Sextile Neptune

The Sextile between Uranus and Neptune will be found in the charts of most people around your age, since these two planets move so slowly. It indicates that you are part of a generation that will try to combine scientific and mystical thought. Environmental issues will also be important to you.

Uranus Conjunct Pluto

The Conjunction between Uranus and Pluto occurs in the charts of everyone around your age and it refers to a generation that is not fooled by empty promises. Freedom for the individual and environmental issues will be of importance to you.

Neptune

After Uranus comes Neptune, the god of the sea. Whereas Uranus is the urge for individual freedom and independence, Neptune is the urge to escape from our normal sense-bound state of consciousness, and experience our unity with a different level of reality.

In the birth chart, Neptune represents our higher ideals and our ability to attune to realities that lie beyond those perceived by the senses. It is the realm of dreams and imagination and our sense of being part of a whole which is greater than ourselves, the awareness of a spiritual dimension to existence. Neptune represents the urge to transcend our normal state of consciousness through meditation and mystical experience, music, dreams and flights of the imagination, or through drugs (including alcohol) which afford us a temporary escape from the mundane grind of living. Neptune can be expressed as high ideals, altruism and spiritual values, or as self destructive escapism and evasion of responsibilities. For most of us it is a mixture of both.

The position of Neptune in the chart shows where and how we seek to express these needs, and in what areas of our lives we tend to seek an often impossible ideal.

Neptune in Scorpio

Born between 1957-1970 you are part of a permissive generation whose experimentation with sex and drugs invaded everyday life and eroded many traditional family values. This was also the most prominent time of the Cold War, a time of spies and secret surveillance.

3rd House

The 3rd house is naturally associated with the sign Gemini and its ruling planet Mercury.

After stabilising our self identity, and acquiring a sense of security in the 2nd, we need, in the 3rd house, to establish our relationship to our immediate environment. This house represents the area of experience concerned with communication and the exchange of information with our immediate social environment. It represents the activity of learning and the type and direction of intellectual and educational skills. On a more mundane level, the 3rd house is related to short journeys, immediate relatives, brothers and sisters if any, and their roles in our lives.

Neptune in 3rd House

Neptune in the 3rd House indicates that you are in tune with your immediate environment to such an extent that you can pick up on the "vibrations" around you. You often get the feeling that you know what is going on beneath the surface, things that are in the air but are not being spoken about or expressed, and you are usually right. At other times, however, what you feel may be the result of your own confused thinking, or unconscious assumptions, which makes it difficult to always be certain about what you are picking up.

You have high ideals and believe, perhaps, that as the individual is part of some greater whole, you should use your own mind and intellect in the service of some high ideal or spiritual goal.

Neptune Sextile Pluto

This aspect between the two outermost planets first occurred in 1942 and will remain in effect for the next hundred years, although the sign positions of the planets will change, so everyone born during this time will have it in their charts. This contact will therefore affect everyone for the next hundred years and represents changes taking place in the world's collective psyche. The keynote of this entire period will be the complete transformation of our existing scientific, religious and political belief systems.

Pluto

Pluto is the outermost planet in the solar system and therefore the slowest moving. At certain times however, due to the high eccentricity of its orbit, it comes closer to the earth than Neptune. This was so from 1984 -1999. At that same time it passed through Scorpio, the sign that it rules. This was a very critical period in world history, since Pluto represents powerful forces of death and destruction or change and transformation, which were at their strongest. This could have lead to destruction through nuclear war or our pollution and exploitation of our planet or to the death of the current political and economical systems and the birth of new political and economic systems, together with a transformation in international relations as well as our relationship to our planet. When Pluto left Scorpio in 1999 all these issues were much altered.

In the individual birth chart, Pluto represents the urge for power and control either over ourselves or others. It is the need to penetrate beneath the surface of experience, to reveal hidden motivations and repressed desires. The position of Pluto in the chart indicates our capacity for self-regeneration or rebirth and our attitude towards beginnings and endings and birth and death, either actual or symbolic. Pluto can be expressed as the acceptance of our need for complete transformation in some area of our life, and the courage to face our deepest compulsions and hang-ups. Or, it can be expressed as the wilful manipulation of others, ruthlessness and an infatuation with power.

Pluto in Virgo

Pluto was in Virgo between 1957-1971. When you were born your generation experienced a time of powerful political forces such as trade unions, unparalleled changes within the health and welfare system, a time of tremendous changes within many work environments due to computers and automation. New developments in birth control led to greater sexual freedom, and experimentation with psychedelic drugs revealed previously unknown levels of consciousness.

Pluto in 1st House

Pluto in your 1st House, indicates that you have a powerful need to in some way re-mould your character at certain points in your life. Pluto represents the force of change and transformation, with this planet in the House of the personal self you will periodically need to clear your life of certain structures that you feel are limiting your growth, such as a bad relationship or job. If you do not feel or express the energy of Pluto within yourself, you may unconsciously act in ways that provoke someone else into doing the job for you, so the other person breaks up the relationship, or your boss gives you the sack. In these cases you will see this as a crisis, until you are able to admit that this was what you needed, and secretly desired.

You may have a deep distrust of life, early experiences may have made you feel that there are destructive forces in the world that are out to get you, feeling that life can be ruthless, you may express a certain degree of ruthlessness in getting what you want. Fear of your own mortality arises from a sense of the inevitability of transformation and death. Death can occur in many forms, from the death of an old way of life, an old way of thinking, to actual physical death, but all are actually a prelude to a new birth or new beginning.

The Midheaven

Represents your ambitions and potential for achievement.

Midheaven in Gemini

Always active, you are something of a live wire who enjoys dominating a conversation and putting across your point of view. However, what you say and do will more often than not revolve around yourself, rather than others. Ever optimistic, you do have an innate power to make dreams come true and if you can keep excessive nervous energy under control, then a great deal could be achieved throughout your life.

North Node in Aries

Indecision can lead you to consider the needs of others first, you should do more for yourself, become a stronger person, more of a self-starter.

South Node in Libra

You have to learn to relate to others and develop an ability to share.
